FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1864.

Desertions from Martin Garcia

Hair-breadth escapes and awful adventures occur monthly at our island fortress, but never reach the ears of our public. If the war office knows anything of them General Gelly studiously conceals the military scandal. It may useful as well as interesting for us to unveil these 'arcana,' for assuredly "there is something rotten in the state Denmark" when desertions are so frequent in spite of the fearful risks incurred by fugitives. Some of the narratives partake of the character of a romance; for instance we will relate one which is not of such recent date as those we allude to:

The garrison was very discontented at the inferior kind of provisions given for rations, and it was well for the Commissariat that some of the soldiers had no opportunity of taking satisfaction. Two of them, however, resolved on risking their lives to escape such misery: one was a foreigner recently recruited, the other was a native who had thoughtlessly killed somebody and was permitted to shoulder a musket instead of standing with his eyes bandaged before four levelled carbines. The foreigner had to mount guard that night, and when the sergeant was asleep the native made him understand by signs that he would attempt to escape, an idea in which the former at once joined. A small four-oared gig was at the water's edge, and our heroes proceeded to seize her, and to have the oars taken from the removed to the sergeant's shed. (In going thither a furious dog rushed at them, barking loudly, which awakened the sergeant, and the sentinel having resumed his post explained to him that the dog was barking at some other dogs on board a vessel passing by.

The two were unable to get at the oars, and accordingly preferred a sail boat, loosening which they put out from land trusting that the current would carry them down stream, and next morning they might touch some part of the Oriental coast. After steering S E. all night, they found themselves on the open mouth of the Plata, and their ill luck would have it that a terrible Pampero arose, lashing the water into huge billows which threatened their every moment with destruction. They were soon within sight of B. Oriental, and as they were driven towards shore a number of pottan and other horsesheads came in sight. Meantime the boat began to fill, and they had to commence baling out the water with their caps. Suddenly a heavy surf capsized the boat but as they were good swimmers, the foreigner managed to reach one of the posts obliging to it for his life, the native was unable to right the boat, but got up on her keel. It is hard to say what must have been their fate if a brig coming down the river did not rescue them. The captain was an Italian and put them to bed, saying he was bound for Montevideo and would land them there, but he guessed their history, seeing the foreigner's uniform, and brought them to B. Aires. When the fugitives awoke from a heavy sleep after their sufferings, the first thing they saw was a file of marines or soldiers, and submitting to their fate they were taken to the Capitania. Here some compassionate people used to visit the foreigner, saying it was a shame to shoot so fine a youth, but the authorities at the intercession of some friends let him go. Not so with the native, who was flogged at the Retiro and died, perhaps from the effects, a short time after.

It will be easily imagined that many deserters must have perished in such attempts, yet we have two cases within the last few days. The captain of the Tavore (whom the 'Tribuna erroneously represented as formerly a diplomatic agent at Rio) picked up three fellows in the last stage of exhaustion, and to complete his benevolent work procured their pardon. In last month, four men ran away one night with a boat from Martin Garcia; they were pursued and search was made for them everywhere, but all in vain to discover them. There was no tidings of either men or boat.

When we remember that Martin Garcia has now used as a penal colony where murderers of the blackest dye are sent to expiate their crimes (on the foolish principle of abolishing capital punishment) it is but right to insist that Government should pay a little more care to prevent escape from the Island. It is a very general opinion that the last batch of runaways may have included the diabolical 'Union' pirates, whose crime (much more atrocious than that of the Flowery Land for which five men were hanged in London) has met with indecent clemency from Lemos & Mitre. Perhaps these assassins got through the island to San Fernando, and are now walking about like lively Christians (escaped from the Cabildo). The increase of crime in Buenos Ayres is attributable to the many cases of impunity resulting from the insecurity of the prisons and penal settlements. In this point at least the "rotten monarchies of Europe" have slightly the advantage of this "free and enlightened Republic."

Foreign Auxiliaries.

Recruiting seems active these days, when we have to send to Italy for soldiers. Formerly Sor. Acevedo, the Argentine Tyrteus, used to send us French invoices, but probably the raw material for soldiering is cheaper in Genoa, now that Sor. Calvari has got a contract for 500 men. In the Terrible came 70 from the latter, and 23 from the former recruiting sergeant, and we learn that both batches have been ordered to reinforce Col. Pippo Charlone's Legion Militar.

It will occur to many, at first sight, that the cost of these auxiliaries might be more usefully applied towards bringing out the same number of hardy immigrant families; or that the Government should prefer a batch of railway navvies, whom President Mitre and Mr. Parish have termed "irresistible legionaries." Nevertheless, we cannot regard it as money ill-spent, since the proper defence of the frontier is a matter of primary importance, and for a general role every man landed here is worth his passage money to the country.

Moreover, these soldiers would form both as a military and industrial element, like in Paraguay, if settled down according to Gen. Mansilla's project; giving them free grants of land, seed, &c., on the frontier, The Romans before Constantine found these military colonies the most effective barrier against the inroads of northern barbarians, and there is no reason why the experiment should not succeed as well on the banks of the Rio Negro, as it did on the Danube. If we rightly understand the bases of the organization of this character before the battle of Pavon, but the men were very improperly drawn into the civil war, and since then have been left to rot in the ranks.

The United States never stood in need of this expedient, since such powerful auxiliaries were held out for immigration that the sons of Irish and double that number of Germans poured into the country in about the same period, quickly filling up the backwoods and prairies of the Far West, till the hunting grounds of the red man became studded with towns and cities, and the tomahawk gave place to those of wigwams. We cannot expect this magical transformation in Buenos Ayres in twenty years but we may safely say that Wheelwright's scheme will work a marvellous change on the highway to Cordoba, and the latter city is likely to reach 50,000. Considering all this, we think it is not difficult for our National and Provincial Governments to contribute to the rapid progress of the civilization of our frontiers. From experience we may say that Irish, Scotch, and Basque immigrants are the best for a new country, and if the Irish famine, turn the exodus from Cork (1,000 weekly) hitherward for three months, the Government would be a gainer, and Government would be spared the services of Messrs. Calvari and Acevedo.

Perhaps it would be well to have foreign auxiliaries which would prove more valuable than a dozen regiments: we mean 100 Dublin policemen. Ireland blubs Englishand all the world in linen, butter, and policemen. Neither the Horse Guards Blue nor the famed six-footers of Frederick the Great are comparable to the Dublin D. Division, in size, discipline, and character. One hundred such men would keep this city in perfect order, and be more useful than even the Swiss Guards of the Vatican. This country being so circumstanced that we must have foreigners for soldiers and serenos, there can be no objection to try the Dublin police, and we answer for our country men that this city will be so pleased with the new kind of "auxiliaries" as to exempt Great Britain and Ireland from the catalogue of "rotten king' doms."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The heat yesterday was oppressive, and we are evidently in for a continued wet season. This is about the 'Veranito of San Juan,' when mid-winter usually assumes for a few days the charms of an Italian autumn. If the present English weather continues, Argentines are sure to get the spleen.

We were incorrectly informed by an Oriental correspondent, on Wednesday, of the failure of Messrs. Thornton and Elizalde; it is likely we shall not have reason to welcome them back until the Oriental difficulties Nos. 1, 2, and 3 are finally settled.

Henceforward the Era's hour for sailing will be 2 p.m. The Fairy will leave this port for Montevideo every Tuesday, and for the river Uruguay every Friday.

As we announced yesterday, the Salto has brought the Rev Mr Adams, English Chaplain at Montevideo, whom we have the honor to salute, wishing him an agreeable sojourn in our city. The Reverend gentleman will, we are informed, preach in the English Church on Sunday evening.

By private letters, of reliable authority, from Montevideo, 8th inst, we have positive information that nothing has been actually done yet, but an arrangement is likely. We are authorized to contradict the rumour of a Provisional Government, and Senor Lamas's Presidency.

The steamer Corrientes is in Montevideo. Mr Beach was on board when the collision took place with the Portuguese brig 'Lopez.' Great blame is attached to the steamer for abandoning the brig, after nearly running her down, carrying away the bowsprit, &c. It is even rumored that the Corrientes got struck on the wrong side.

The new Pastoral Association, under the management of Sor Ponsati, is to be established in the Partido of Dolores. The land is said to be very good, and the new Cabaña will probably be very successful.

The Bonemida at last arrived. She entered port yesterday morning, and left again at four o'clock in the evening.

The paper money question is positively becoming the greatest of all nuisances: better that we should suffer from an invisible depreciation of the currency, than that all the newspapers should get so stuffed full of schemes, that there is scarcely room for local events. Yesterday a pacific ounce broker sent us a scheme for the redemption of the paper money, which he wished to have published in the Standard: it was about half the size of M. Billinghurst's, would only take up about six columns of the 'Standard.' M. Riestra's scheme, people think will get through the Chambers, but as it is optional with the public to adopt it or not, it is thought it will remain a dead letter until ounces come down to about 410. Then, perhaps, our private banks will step in, take up all the paper money in circulation, exchange it for bonds, and 'cancel.'

The new German Concert Hall, in Calle Parque, is progressing fast, and promises to be a splendid edifice.

Every one complains of the price of maize. The oldest inhabitant never recollects it being at such a price: it sells in Rosario at 170 dols the fanega, and yet we hear, if we had any traction engines to send to Chivilcoy, we might get thousands of fanegas at 100 dols.

The state of the roads near town baffles all attempts at description; the streets are knee deep in mud, and cannot be running in and out through quintas and chacras, paying toll at every gate, as the public roads, south of the Barracas bridge, are cut up in the most alarming manner. There is one spot on the Chascolus road which would satisfy any the Indian bullock cart in the country. It is said that the owner of the adjoining quinta, who allows coaches, carts, and horsemen to pass through, at the small charge of 5 dol, has actually dug a deep fosse across the road, which renders it perfectly impossible for any one to pass without entering his quinta.

We have to acknowledge the receipt of a tragedy, written expressly for the new English theatre. It is from the pen of a well-known literary countryman: the name of the tragedy is—

THE GAUCHO DECEIVER.

The bank of Entre Rios is about to start branch establishments in all the principal towns of that province.

A new paper has been started in Paysandu, by J. Alexander. It is called 'El Parana,' and has a good deal of news.

A meeting was held the other evening by a number of English amateur performers, respecting the new theatre. We have not however heard the result.

The Esmeralda brought no news from Peru. It would seem as if the pass of the Cordillera is shut with the snow, as no west coast mails have come to hand.

One of the most inconvenient customs in this place is the calling streets and markets after certain dates. The market of the 6th of June, which is of more recent date than the 11th of September, is becoming so thronged with carts, that they can hardly find room to get in. This 6th of June market is but little known to the public, still, according to some of the Montevideo rumors, it is becoming a very important place, but as the Municipality refuse to pave the streets, the carts find the greatest difficulty in approaching it.

We are promised some further particulars respecting the great Chascomus robbery. Every day, we understand the police are making further discoveries. We hear that some of this gang of robbers actually carried on a normal business, on the steamboat running from Buenos Ayres to Montevideo Captain Bruce, we regret to say, was robbed of 1,000 and a well known English merchant was cased of a watch which he valued at 80 guineas; but there is every probability that the police are now on the right track.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

The 'Salto, arrived yesterday morning, with the Reforma 8th inst. In a correspondence from Higueritas, June 3rd, we read that Flores was encamped a few leagues from Durazno. His vanguard had assaulted Carmelo but met with a disastrous repulse from the garrison, leaving several killed and wounded in front of the town, besides many spoils which fell into the hands of the victors. Caraballo essayed to rally the fugitives and make a second attack, but finding the garrison in great force, retired. Carmelo was defended by Juan P Oribe, chief of Mercedes, who on hearing of the rebel's approach rapidly crossed the country and threw himself into the town. Most of the Orientals had deserted from Flores whose troops are now almost exclusively composed of Brazilian filibusters.

President Aguirre received Messrs Elizalde and Saravia at his private residence, on Tuesday evening and a long conference, terminating at 10,30 was held touching the present crisis in Oriental affairs. The citizens were overjoyed at the hopes of a speedy and honorable settlement, and it was said that Brazilian influence is rather in favor of the rebels, and herein the Argentine minister is of accord, for we hear that Senor Elizalde has left at the special commission sent to offer terms to Flores. The conditions seem to be the resignation of Pres. Aguirre, formation of a Provisional Ministry, pending the election of a new Government in which Flores will hold office.

The Colonel Conde has left Montevideo on the arrival of the Brazilian General Netto, who has put up at the house of Sor Castro, and been serenaded by the townsfolk on Tuesday night, in signal protection of Brazilian residents in Banda Oriental. The Monclar Dramatic Co. gave a grand performance in his honor, on Thursday.

The Pulaski left Montevideo on Tuesday for Colonia and Fray Bentos, with the 5th battalion of rifles, a country of ammunition, arms and uniforms for the troops in those departments

We regret to read in a Government decree of the several of the industrious and inoffensive Swiss colonists have been murdered by the rebels; the Government however say that these scenes were vagabonds wearing the Government uniform.

The official paper Nacion, welcomes the new English and Argentine Ministers with gratulation hoping they will interpose their influence to rescue Banda Oriental from the imperious demands of Brazil.

Scandalous Conduct of Italians

We all know the consequence of rogues falling out, but we have yet to learn the result of friends pitching into one another.

Messrs. Keane, Dath, and Co., of the 'National,' publishes the following scandalous outrage, perpetrated by a lot of Garibaldi's countrymen, on a few peaceable and harmless natives.

It appears that a few (bijos delpais) natives were proceeding down Calle Peru last Sunday night, when they were set on by a lot of Italians at the corner of Calle Mexico. To use Mr. Keane's own words, these gentlemen were talking familiarly amongst themselves, when suddenly the Genoese made their appearance, and began by using the most offensive epithets against the maternal relations of the native young gentlemen. At first the native pretended not to understand their Spanish, but the Italians, who were apparently up for sport, stopped the parties, and there they had it How the scrimmage ended we know not, but according to friend Keane, one of the Italians got an ugly blow of a bricktel. As a matter of course, a great crowd assembled, and the native gentlemen were permitted to escape. We call attention to this case, to prove the utter uselessness of our police, and also to show that at times even the best friends will have a misunderstanding. The Italians, we have been led to believe, are regarded by most of our colleagues as the most friendly foreigners in this country, but it seem Irishmen, instead of Italians, who caused the row, when would we hear the end of it?

TELEGRAMS FROM CALLAO

April 17th, 7.30 p.m.

The Spanish fleet has not appeared in the bay this morning. As might be supposed, by its movements yesterday evening, after receiving the despatches from Admiral Pareja, and receiving on board a number of Spanish refugees, it bent its course towards the Chincha Islands, where they are probably constructing fortifications and awaiting the movements of our (Peruvian) fleet. Great alarm prevailed in Callao all night, fearing some new aggression on the part of the Spanish navy, which steered out of port last night, and is expected to return to-night. We are fitting out several national ships, which it is thought will be despatched to re-conquer the islands to-morrow. Great enthusiasm is felt by all classes. Last night the foreign residents held two meetings, offering their services to the President, and demanding arms and a place for a barrack.

April 18th, 11 a.m.

Nothing new up to the present. The English steamer Leander was despatched at 6 o'clock last night to Panama, with letters from Government to the English Admiral of the Pacific station. The Peruvian war steamer Sachaca has returned from her cruise, being unable to sight the Spanish ships of war. Several vessels are in sight, but they are all steamers. The Mercantile Club of Callao has resolved to take an active part, and sends their patriotic sympathy for Peru. Three hundred have offered their assistment two million silver dollars, but the President declined with thanks, saying he yet thought it was unnecessary. The American and Italian residents have placed their lives and properties at the disposal of Government. Last night the naval officers visited the President, declaring their anxiety for a speedy engagement with the enemy. His Excellency thanked them, observing if Callao failed to do his duty he would be shot. Over 2000 citizens assembled in the Convent of St. Dominge, under D. Alfonso, offering their services and goods to Government. Notwithstanding the enthusiasm, luckily no outrage has been committed on the Spanish residents.—'Ferro Carril' (Rosario.)

Street-railways. In Valparaiso they have laid down rails through the principal streets, for locomotives, from the Custom-house to the railway station (sou lesoup) for transport of goods and passengers. Fare 10 cents per head.

Marshal O'Donnel. The duke of Tetuan intends leaving for San Domingo on the 20th of 30,000 men, to quell the disorders there.

El Dorado. The gold mines of Caribou (Vancouver's island) are reported to be almost yet inexhaustible. Digger made 3000 oz, (£10,000) in 24 hours. Some miners have returned after making with 5,000 oz, and so little do they value the gold now-a-days times to pelt people in the streets with small nuggets. The California mines are about to work by the force of water, but the Eureka water Co. and Main Ditch near the Sierra Nevada have monopolized all the water. The Australian mines are doing well: a New Zealand savage has discovered a nugget worth £900, after one day's search.

Romance. Some 18 years ago a charming girl of Santiago (Chile) was seduced by a youth of fashion, who refused to marry her afterwards. One night she entered his drawing room and stabbed him in his wife's arms. He fell lifeless at her feet, but the crying Lucrecia locked herself up, and never left her room till she was worn away to a skeleton and death released her from her sufferings. Of late she was quite mad and refused to receive the last consolations of Religion.

Maximilian's guards. Three of the Austrian Lloyd's steamers have been chartered to convey to Mexico the six thousand Austrian & Belgian Volunteers who have been preferred to 8,000 Irishmen at first proposed.

What did Garibaldi Leave England

To the Editors of the Standard.

BUENOS AYRES, 8th June, 1864.

Gentlemen—

Perhaps the best answer to Mr. Varela's article in to-day's Tribuna, with respect to Garibaldi's leaving England, is the enclosed declaration of Lord Clarendon; "spoken under a sanction fully as solemn as my oath," and whose word is certainly as creditable as that of the Editor of the Tribuna.

YOURS, &c.,

AN ENGLISHMAN.

Departure of Garibaldi.

The Earl of Clarendon said:—I wish to say a few words to your lordships on a subject, concerning which it is due not only to the Emperor of the French, and to Her Majesty's Government, but, if I may take the liberty of saying so, to myself also, that there should be no misunderstanding. I refer to the reports prevailing in the metropolis and elsewhere, that the demonstration made to me with respect to the cause of General Garibaldi's arrival in this country or as to the probable time of his departure. I will not say that the subject was not alluded to, for it was adverted to by myself, and I said that the enthusiasm with which General Garibaldi was received on his entrance into London was caused by the circumstance of his having risen from the ranks of the people by the services he rendered to his country (hear, hear), and because he was brave and honest, and that the enthusiasm of the people would await him in different parts of England. (Hear, hear.) Nobody is more convinced than myself of the inconvenience and impropriety of alluding in any communication with which I was honoured by the Emperor of the French; but I think I am not betraying any confidence when I state that the Emperor said he fully understood and entirely believed how such qualities as those of the people by the services rendered to his country (hear, hear), and because he was brave and honest, and that the enthusiasm of the people would await him in different parts of England.

THE ROSARIO MAILS.

Revolution in Salta,

Escape of Prisoners in Cordoba

The 'Ferro-carril' (per Esmeralda) contains important news. We have full particulars of the revolt in Salta. On the 8th ult., the National Guard and citizens turned out en masse and deposed the Governor, on the plea of preventing the Federal party from getting the upper hand, and as causing a civil war. Their choice fell on Don Jose Uruburu (late President of the National Chamber of Deputies at B. Ayres), but the Provincial Chambers refused to assemble and ratify the election, whereupon the head of the Legislature made a second coup d'etat, and in their name congratulated Sor. Uruburu, as if the Chambers were in session The new Governor then issued a circular to the various Provincial Governments, announcing his accession on the grounds stated.

Dates from Cordoba are to the 3d inst. Ten prisoners escaped from the city jail, and have not been retaken. (See our article on Martin Garcia, to-day). The Indians are troublesome at Rio Cuatro, coming within a mile of the town, but Paigrewa is unable to attack them, his regiment having lost over 100 by desertion. The 'Eco' states that the murderer of Sor Cuesto is living quietly at Rio Cuato and the authorities will not seize him, Governor Oroña has handed over the reins of power in Santa Fe to Sor Cullen. The Committee of the Central Railway is busily collecting shares at Rosario.

In Peraná a new (moderate) paper has appeared. There is talk of building a new custom-house. Sor. Caminoa, Paraguayan Consul General, arrived at that place.

The Chilian news in another column is, we believe, no later than the last published.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

State of the Frontiers, A. D. 1864

The following is an extract from a letter dated Rio Cuarto, May 17th:

"I find things here in a most miserable state on account of the invasions of the Indians. All the estancias are completely abandoned, and in this place we live in hourly fear that the Indians will attempt an entrance. All are afraid to the plaza at night, none venturing to stop in their houses. I am happy to say that thus far if the stock of the estancias has suffered, it is only in a few 'yeguas.' It is confidently expected that this moon an invasion will be made in this quarter.

I cannot at present say when I shall leave for Buenos Ayres, but I am determined to do so as soon as possible, for, as to remaining here under present circumstances, I will not, on any considerations."

Shakspeare in the Grand Chaco.

To the Editor:—

And why not, Misther? If the theory, advanced by Messrs. Robert Owen & Co., be true, that spirits possess the faculty of making their presence known wherever a medium exists, why not here, "tambien?" That you believe in it is evident from a paragraph in your paper of June 1st, wherein you state that "writing table has now become the rage in town—that Astr-Gull has fired the Shakspearian genius of your countrymen, and that shortly will be brought on the boards an Oriental Tragedy (Hando Oriental) from the pen of a literary English clerk of this city."

Here am I, in the heart of the Chaco, about putting together the awfullest, heart-rendingest, hair-standingest of tragedies, to be entitled,

THE SANTA FECINO BEDOUIN,

on

GAUCHO DECEIVER,

A Tragedy in Three Acts.

A production, Sir, for which a tercentenary is sure to be given to my children's children. Now, as you have three theatres in Buenos Ayres, pray secure one for this, with the best Company you can get. The proceeds of the sale of the MSS. I wish to divide between the Italian and the British Hospitals. If you say you desire to see it first, I shall send the remainder of the MSS. to you next week, the first Act accompanying this.

Yours to Command,
THE SHOT OF WALKER.

Cotton in the Upper Provinces.

Our advices from up-river inform us that the cotton crop is being gathered in with activity in Corrientes, and at Parana, in Entre Rios). Señor Iglesia of Corrientes has in full working order one of Albinson's Macarthy Cotton Jins, which he obtained from Her Majesty's Consul at Rosario, and another of the same machines is doing duty at Parana city. Señor Iglesia is highly pleased with the admirable working of the jin he has in his possession; and as the Consul has disposed of these jins for little beyond cost price—while he has still four others for those that want them—we hope soon to have a good cargo of the raw mate rial on its way to Lancashire,

CLEAN STREETS.

THURSDAY, June 9th, 1864.

Gentlemen:

In the capital of one of the rotten monarchies of Europe, viz, London, there is a law compelling all householders to sweep the foot-paths in front of their houses every morning before 9 o'clock. A fine of five shillings is imposed in case of neglect. Such a law would be a boon to this city. Another beneficial article might be introduced, to compel all persons occupying the corners of streets to sweep, each, a crossing. To the shop-keepers occupying said corners this would be an actual benefit.

I am, yours truly,
PEDESTRIAN.

Paper price of ounces, 400$
Price of sovereigns, 141.

Patacons were rather firm to-day, contrary to general expectation. We are assured that the market is solely sustained by two or three bulls, who, it report be true, have more gold than paper.

The business to-day was extremely limited, only 29,020 patacons being sold for cash, and 68,720 altogether. Specie opened at 28,75, and closed at 28,80.

TIME SALES

For Wednesday	10,000 at 28 75

November 30	5,000 28 60

The news from Montevideo, it was thought, would bring specie tumbling down, but so far from it, a few resolute speculators have freely every dollar that was offered. Owing to the scandalous state of the streets, the attendance on 'Change on this muddy weather is rather poor, and business so dull, that the brokers spend their time in discussing the antiquity of the 'Graves of Blarney.'

Few transactions of any importance have transpired. Things could not be much duller,

Argentine capitalists are very indignant at our bringing them before the public, but they must subscribe for the Central Railway.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA & C°
No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.
The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that these are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immence number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the mutual gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their Montevideo firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.
The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.
The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.
The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.
The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood,
Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p$] per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Subscriptions in Paper Money.
The Directors, wishing to enlarge the operations of the Society, have acceded to the request of many people in this city, and determined to issue shares payable in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, under the following conditions:—
Article 65.—From the 1st of April, 1864, shares shall be issued to such persons as may wish to pay in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, and in accordance with Article 17 chapter 3 of the Statutes of the Society, the lowest sum receivable being $200 annually, payable in one sum, or in instalments, subject to the following rules:
1st.—For Paper Money Subscribers sections will be opened and kept separate from Silver Money Subscribers.
2nd.—The liquidation of the sums belonging to the sections of Paper Money Subscribers will be administered according to Article 31 of the Statutes, and for account of those particular sections.
By these means the Directory hopes to gain its object, which is to enable the poorer classes to enjoy all the advantages of the Society.
